

Joanna Edwards - CV

January 2018 – present — Magdalen College School, Oxford

Head of Economics

A top tier, highly academic day school. Teaching A-Level Economics, where the majority of pupils achieved A*/A grades. Supporting students in their university applications, which included numerous applications to Oxford, Cambridge and Ivy League Colleges each year. I was Head of Department and Head of Lower Sixth for a number of years.

As of September 2026, I will be working as a full-time freelance Economics tutor, having tutored for families in the UK and internationally for over ten years.

September 2014 - December 2017 — St. Pauls' School, London

Economics teacher at London's top day school. Teaching A-Level Economics and supporting university applications, as well as being a pastoral tutor.

September 2011 - September 2014 — KPMG, London

Transaction and Restructuring Graduate programme. Working in Restructuring, Strategy, Transaction Services. ACA qualified.

Qualifications

MIT, MicroMasters – Political Economy and Economic Development

University of Reading – Qualified Teacher Status

ICAEW – ACA, Chartered Accountant

University of Bristol - Economics and Management, BSc